

My week by week eco-journal
EACH day ask yourself,
“What have I done for the Mother
Earth?”

January 1, 2006

My dreams have come true! The devil has been bombed back to hell! Long live Mother Earth!

January 2, 2006

I feel terrible the Peace Tree was destroyed, there are always casualties in war. Today, I recycled.

January 3, 2006

I went by the site today, I am sickened by the loss of the Peace Tree. Today, I planted flower seeds in the city park and recycled.

January 4, 2006

Today, I tried to reach LEAF! members to organize a January meeting. No one called back. Today, I wrote a letter to Bush about the dangers of arctic drilling.

January 5, 2006

January 6, 2006

January 7, 2006