Police admitted yesterday afternoon that they were unable to find the weapon used in the killing of Bubba Davis Tuesday night.

Davis, allegedly murdered by roommate Pat Hughes, died of a single stab wound during a fight over the rent.

Although police were on the scene at 4515 N. Beacon immediately after the stabbing, they could not explain why the apparent weapon was missing.

"We know what the skewer looks like," one official said. "But now we are not even sure a skewer was used. Whatever the weapon was, it's not inside or outside the apartment."
