

AT THE TIME OF TRIAL

Pat Siewert continues to work at the Lake Kennedy Federation, and does much the same work as in June 2009. Relations with Connie Cutter seem the same. Connie seems to ignore the possibility of being tried on criminal charges, although Connie no longer does anything that might cause Siewert to claim that Connie is behaving in an improper manner. Siewert might observe that Connie comes into the office much less now, that the office wall has been repainted, and that the office has been straightened up. Siewert has no idea whether Federation records have been recovered or replaced. Siewert is aware that Donnie Thompson left the Lake Kennedy Federation in mid-July 2009, and found another job at a Scherer company. Siewert knows little more than that about Thompson, and has not been in touch with Thompson. The dogs are fine, and the laptop assigned to Siewert for Federation work has never been recovered. Siewert is not longer encouraged or even allowed to take home Federation property.

Donnie Thompson is still working at Scherer, and is still trying to learn something about environmental enforcement. Donnie will claim that in July 2009 Connie Cutter seemed to blame Donnie for telling the police that there was stolen property in Connie's home, although Connie never admitted any knowledge of the property's being in the house. Thompson will say that leaving LFK was a matter of being uncomfortable around Cutter, as Cutter seemed to behave as if Thompson did not exist, i.e., when Connie would come into the office, Connie would not acknowledge Thompson's presence, talk to Thompson, or even look at Thompson.

Leslie Foote is still working as an intern at the Federation, and nothing has changed. Leslie is still aiming to graduate in June 2009, and still has high hopes of receiving an "A" for the 6 hour internship course at the end of the year, and of being offered a paying job at the Lake Kennedy Federation.

Connie Cutter remains at the Lake Kennedy Federation in the same capacities as in June 2009. Connie tells people that Donnie Thompson is responsible for Connie's troubles.
